

SHE'S COMING! MAY 5...

Project Home Indy is proud to have wildly popular author and blogger Glennon Melton as the keynote speaker for their annual fundraiser, Boutiques and Brunch Benefit, being held at the Madame Walker Theater on Sunday, May 5, 2013.

Simply stated, Glennon Melton is an internet rock star. Her blog posts and Facebook page (over 58,000 members strong) updates are read by thousands daily.

Glennon is one of Huffington Post's most popular contributors, has a book on Amazon's Best Seller list that hasn't even been released yet and leads a massive online group of women called the Monkees.

The Monkees are part support group, part fundraising flashmob. Their breakneck successes have included everything from sending a woman with stage four pancreatic cancer, her husband and their eight children on their first vacation ever to teaming up with Microsoft to transform a school in Maryland that serves special needs students. Glennon and the Monkees are a force to be reckoned with. If they get behind your cause, you're almost guaranteed success.

Glennon is the founder of momastery.com and a not-for-profit called Monkee See-Monkee Do. Her upcoming book Carry On Warrior: Thoughts on Life Unarmed will be released on April 2, 2013.

Boutiques and Brunch starts at 11:30 with a brunch, silent auction and boutique shopping provided by some of the area's most unique retailers, followed by Glennon's presentation at 2:00. Seating is limited to 200 for the brunch and 900 for the keynote. Tickets are on sale now at:
